

Executive Proclamation

State of South Dakota

Office of the Governor

Whereas, Kay Foust has dedicated over 30 years to the food service program at the Douglas School District in Rapid City, South Dakota, and will be retiring on August 21, 2009; and,

Whereas, Kay has been employed as a server, head server, floater, substitute cashier, and cook/baker always making the cafeteria a fun place to learn and not just eat by posting food facts, decorations, and rhymes about nutrition or school food service; and,

Whereas, Kay goes above and beyond her daily job requirements and has served the School Nutrition Association as Vice-President, President Elect, and President, and as the state industry seminar chairperson; and,

Whereas, Kay and her husband, Bill, of 40 years, are the proud parents of their son, Jeff, and daughter-in-law, Pam; and,

Whereas, It is fitting and proper as Governor to make special note of this outstanding South Dakotan on the occasion of her retirement, and to congratulate her as colleagues, family, and friends gather on May 15, 2009, to celebrate this milestone in her life:

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim May 15, 2009, as

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Fourth Day of May in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Nine.
